Football Camp

Purpose: To teach young athletes the importance of discipline and hard work as it relates to the game of football. Specific football skills and drills will be taught each day. A strong emphasis will be placed on sportsmanship, teamwork, and competitiveness.

Benefits: Your athletes will gain an increased knowledge of the game of football as they receive individual and team instruction as well as weight room information. Your athletes will also improve their conditioning and develop social and interpersonal skills.

Where: Beavercreek High School practice fields

What to bring: Cleats and tennis shoes (in case it rains)
Water bottle
Please do not bring your own football
